

Books, Clothes, Supplies, Tuition and More...Whether you have kids in school now, or will in the future, do you wonder how you can afford it all?

Have you ever thought you had to choose between Catholic primary and secondary school and college for your children?

Do you want to learn more about how you can plan for and afford a Catholic education for your children?

Join the Catholic Diocese of Toledo for a free seminar on how you can plan for and afford your children's education from Catholic elementary school through college.

Bill Harris, a Financial Advisor with Informative Financial Services and a registered representative with Mutual Services Corporation will offer three FREE seminars in the Metro Toledo area to help plan, save and afford your children's Catholic education.

Everyone who attends the seminar will receive two complimentary financial consultations with Mr. Harris to help you find the right strategies to help you reach your financial goals.

All seminars will be held from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. at the following locations:

Tuesday, March 20th - St. Joseph, Sylvania - 5411 Main Street, Sylvania, OH 43560

Wednesday, March 21st - Blessed Sacrament - 2216 Castlewood Drive, Toledo, OH 43613

Thursday, March 22nd - Central Catholic High School - 2550 Cherry Street, Toledo, OH 43608

Register by calling Mary Chalmers, 419-244-6711 ext 621 by March 19th.
